Contact appoints new Chief People Officer

Contact Energy (Contact) is pleased to announce the conclusion of its search for a new Chief People Officer with the appointment of Jan Bibby. Jan will commence her role at Contact in November.

Jan was the General Manager, Human Resources at Vodafone New Zealand before heading to the UK as the group Head of Organisation Effectiveness for Africa, Middle East and Asia Pacific. During her career in HR and in sales and marketing across many industries including telecommunications, pharmaceuticals, travel and local government, Jan has driven organisational transformations, leadership development, talent management and change management.

Dennis Barnes, Contact Chief Executive said "I am looking forward to having Jan on the leadership team and the experience she brings to Contact."
